Disturbances in Relating to Events

1. The child does not understand sequences of events unless they are made concrete and visual.
   Examples: ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

2. The child has difficulty organizing self and environment.
   Examples: ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

3. The child has difficulty with changes in routines.
   Examples: ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

4. The child has difficulty adapting to new situations and changes in the environment.
   Examples: ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

5. The child needs a stable environment where learning to be flexible is encouraged and supported.
   Examples: ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________

Introduction to Autism